EDUCATION & GUIDANCE

Keep Your Mind Healthy

The center has many educational classes and activities available for members. Whether you are looking for computer, craft, video courses, or informational seminars, we have the class for you.

SOCIALIZATION & COMMUNITY

Keep Your Spirit Healthy

Want to meet new people or learn a new game? The center has lunches, bingo, card games, and plenty of room to meet a new friend. Our schedule is packed with fun trips.

RECREATION & EXERCISE

Keep Your Body Healthy

We offer a variety of different exercise classes from beginner to advance. If structured exercise class isn't for you, we have exercise equipment available for our members to use.

Conveniently located off of Mahoning Avenue on Westchester Drive, across from Joseph Knight's Towers and near Westchester Square Apartments. Our Center offers easy and convenient parking and is wheelchair accessible.

Staying active physically, mentally, and socially will help maintain a healthier mind and body. The Austintown Senior Center is a social club that offers a variety of services, classes, and activities that provide the opportunities to meet new friends and explore new interests for independent adults 60 years and older.
